

2022 Seoul International Forum on Elections

We invite you to the 2022 Seoul International Forum on Elections to be held online, where we will discuss important issues in the field of elections and the development of democracy around the world.

We are looking forward to your keen interest and participation.

---

Host	National Election Commission of the Republic of Korea
Date and Time	November 10, 2022 (Thu) 3pm - 6pm (KST)
Theme	Democracy, Responding to the Changing Environment

---

Program

---

		Opening Remarks Rho Tae-ak Chairperson, National Election Commission
15:00-15:20	Opening Ceremony	Congratulatory Remarks Catherine Raper Australian Ambassador to the Republic of Korea Philip Turner New Zealand Ambassador to the Republic of Korea Andrew Herrup Acting Deputy Chief of Mission, U.S Embassy in the Republic of Korea
		How to React to Election Environment Changes Caused by the Development of Digital Technology
		Moderator  Lim Sung-hack Professor, Department of International Relations, University of Seoul
15:20-16:35	Session One	Presenters  Robert Krimmer Professor, Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies, University of Tartu in Estonia  Max Grömping Lecturer, School of Government and International Relations, Griffith University in Australia  Chang Woo-young Professor, Department of Political Science, Catholic University of Daegu
16:35-16:45		Break
		Challenges in Expanding Youth Participation in Politics
		Moderator  Yoon Ji-woong Professor, Department of Political Administration, Kyung Hee University
16:45-18:00	Session Two	Presenters  Rachel Allen Director of Community and International Engagement, Australian Electoral Commission  Sylvia Kritzing Professor, Department of Government, University of Vienna in Austria  Jang Seon-hwa Assistant Professor, Department of Global Cultural Contents, Daejeon University

---